Get ready for the ultimate, jaw-dropping 16-day trans-European motorcycle odyssey that will ignite your soul! We are tearing up the map from the legendary canals of Amsterdam through the emerald twisties of the Belgian Ardennes, the fairy-tale valleys of Luxembourg, and the world's most coveted wine regions and high-altitude mountain passes across France, Switzerland, Andorra, and Spain. This isn't just a tour—it's a pure, unadulterated celebration of two-wheeled freedom! We have banned boring highways completely. Instead, we're taking you on a masterclass of riding: asphalt carved through pristine backroads, endless sweeping curves, and hairpin turns that deliver breath-taking panoramic vistas at every single crest. Every mile is engineered for pure riding adrenaline, seamlessly paired with rich culture and iconic bucket-list landmarks.

And because true riders deserve to live like kings, this journey is crafted as an irresistible, hedonistic celebration of world-class gastronomy and fine wine. You'll carve your path through the beating hearts of Champagne and Burgundy, conquer the soaring peaks of the Alps and the Pyrenees, and drop down to the sun-drenched shores of the Mediterranean. Dinner each evening is left wide open so you have complete freedom to set your own vibe, while we hand you the keys to the absolute finest local culinary secrets and legendary wines every single night!

Day-by-Day Itinerary

May 12: Optional Pre-Stay in Amsterdam

Arriving early? Today is your exclusive bonus day to soak in one of Europe's most magnetic capitals before the official tour kicks off! Take a relaxed, sunlit stroll along Amsterdam's iconic 17th-century canal ring, surrounded by historic merchant architecture, or explore hidden courtyards and vibrant neighborhoods at your own pace. When night falls, step into a classic Dutch brown café or canal-side bistro to sample crispy, savory bitterballen, fresh herring, or a rich stamppot, washed down with an ice-cold local craft beer or a razor-sharp glass of crisp dry white wine.

May 13: Arrival Amsterdam – Official Tour START & Motorcycle Handover

Depends on when you land in Amsterdam, the entire morning or early afternoon are yours to explore the magic of Amsterdam at your own leisure! Dive into the city's highlights: marvel at masterworks in the world-famous Rijksmuseum or Van Gogh Museum, wander the bohemian boutiques of the "Nine Streets" (De Negen Straatjes), or hop on an open-air canal boat cruise to see the historic gabled houses from the water. In the late afternoon, the official tour kicks off! The entire group gathers for our welcome briefing, route walkthrough, and the official motorcycle handover.

May 14: Amsterdam – Den Haag – Liège

Fire up those engines—it's time to ride! We blast out of the urban center and head southwest toward the coast, carving through scenic polder roads and past coastal dunes straight into Den Haag (The Hague) for a quick photo opportunity outside the iconic Peace Palace (Palais de la Paix), home to the International Court of Justice.

From Den Haag, we hit the open highway and winding country roads, sweeping past iconic windmills and peaceful riverbanks as we cross the border into Wallonia, Belgium, carving our way toward historic Liège.
Along the way, we explore Liège's town center and gaze over the city from the top of the famous Montagne de Bueren staircase. When night falls, Liège's culinary scene calls: feast on world-famous, triple-cooked Belgian fries, rich Carbonnade Flamande (beef slow-braised in dark ale), or mouthwatering Boulets à la Liègeoise, perfectly matched with a legendary Belgian abbey beer or a smooth French red.

May 15: Liège – Luxembourg
Grip the bars tight—today is an absolute paradise for twisty-road fanatics! We dive deep into the dense, emerald forests of the Ardennes. The apex-hunting begins with a pilgrimage to the holy grail of motorsport: the legendary Circuit de Spa-Francorchamps, where we pause to soak in the high-octane atmosphere. From there, we carve our way down to the fairytale town of La Roche-en-Ardenne, tucked in a deep river bend beneath dramatic medieval castle ruins. We push south past historic WWII sites near Bastogne and into the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg to marvel at the cliffside Vianden Castle and the UNESCO fortress walls of Luxembourg City. Tonight, feast like royalty on Judd mat Gaardebounen (succulent smoked pork collar with broad beans) or golden Gromperekichelcher potato fritters, toasted with a vibrant, mineral-rich Moselle Valley Riesling or Pinot Gris!

May 16: Luxembourg – Reims (Champagne wine region)
We bid farewell to Luxembourg and cross into France, where the tarmac turns into a flowing ribbon through the rolling, sun-kissed hills of Champagne. Ride past endless oceans of world-famous vineyards framing every spectacular curve. Our destination is Reims, dominated by the breathtaking Notre-Dame de Reims Cathedral—the coronation site of French kings. Cap off this sensational day with refined French dining—think mouthwatering tender duck breast (magret de canard) or regional delicacies—before stepping inside a prestigious champagne house for an exclusive tasting flight of authentic, effervescent Champagne!

May 17: Reims – Paris
We roll along gorgeous departmental roads following the Marne River valley, carving through quaint French hamlets, dense nature parks, and historic battlefields. Sweeping, addictive curves bring us seamlessly toward the edge of the world's most romantic city, skipping boring highways entirely for scenic overlooks of grand châteaux. Tonight, Paris is yours! Walk into a classic Parisian bistro in Montmartre or along the Seine for iconic comfort food: sizzling Entrecôte dripping with herb butter, rich garlic-butter escargot, or crispy duck confit, accompanied by a velvety glass of Bordeaux or Rhône Valley red beneath the sparkling, lit Eiffel Tower!

May 18: Paris REST DAY
Wake up in the City of Light with a full day to recharge at your own pace—no helmet, no heavy gear, just pure freedom! Walk the grand Champs-Élysées, stand face-to-face with masterpieces at the Louvre, or climb up to Sacré-Cœur for an unbelievable panorama over Paris. Indulge your senses all day long: start with warm, flaky butter croissants fresh out of the oven, sample artisan cheeses at a local fromagerie for lunch, and spend the evening at a bustling French brasserie enjoying delicate beef tartare or sole meunière paired with a legendary Burgundian wine.

May 19: Paris – Beaune (Burgundy wine region)
We leave Paris in our rearview mirror and charge south on epic departmental routes through the dense forests and glittering lakes of the Morvan Regional Natural Park. The roads turn deliciously twisty as we descend into Burgundy's world-renowned Côte d'Or wine country toward Beaune. Highlights include the perched medieval gem of Vézelay and the iconic Hôtel-Dieu de Beaune with its vibrant, tiled roof. Beaune is the epicurean heart of France: hunt down a cozy underground wine tavern for iconic Bœuf Bourguignon or Coq au Vin, paired with a breathtaking glass of Premier Cru Pinot Noir or rich, buttery Chardonnay.

May 20: Beaune – Geneva
Rolling vineyards instantly give way to dense pine forests and sweeping mountain passes as we climb into the dramatic Jura Mountains. We cross the French-Swiss border on high-altitude twisties offering jaw-dropping, heart-stopping vistas over Lake Geneva before swooping down into Geneva itself. Marvel at the sheer beauty of the Jura range and watch the iconic Jet d'Eau fountain shoot into the sky. Tonight, warm up with ultimate Swiss alpine comfort food: reserve a table for bubbling, rich cheese Fondue, scraped-to-order Raclette, or crispy potato Rösti, accompanied by a glass of crisp Swiss Chasselas white wine and divine Swiss chocolate!

May 21: Geneva – Grenoble
We hit high gear as we re-enter France and attack high-altitude alpine passes carving straight through the towering limestone peaks of the Chartreuse Regional Natural Park! This leg delivers raw, exhilarating riding through sheer gorges and technical switchbacks all the way to Grenoble, cradled in its alpine valley. Sights include the legendary Grande Chartreuse Monastery and a cable car ride up to the Bastille fortress. In Grenoble's old town, treat yourself to alpine perfection: creamy Gratin Dauphinois, local trout, or melted Reblochon dishes, paired with a crisp Savoie white wine and a shot of glowing green Chartreuse liqueur!

May 22: Grenoble – Avignon
We charge south along legendary stretches of the Route Napoléon and into the Prealps of Provence. Crisp mountain air gives way to the intoxicating scents of wild thyme, rosemary, and lavender. The tarmac sweeps through dramatic canyons and hilltop stone villages toward the historic papal stronghold of Avignon on the Rhône River. Admire the grand Palais des Papes and the famous Pont d'Avignon. Tonight, dine under the stars in a sun-drenched square on vibrant Provençal dishes like rich Ratatouille or Daube Provençale, paired with a world-class, bold red from Châteauneuf-du-Pape or a bone-dry, ice-cold Provençal Rosé.

May 23: Avignon – Carcassonne
We ride west across the wild, untamed wetlands of the Camargue and through the rugged, winding hills of the Haut-Languedoc. Sweeping asphalt offers glorious views over vine-covered hillsides and medieval watchtowers, bringing us to the crown jewel of southern France: the fortified citadel of Carcassonne. On the way, stand in awe before the ancient Roman Pont du Gard aqueduct. Tonight, dine within the ancient fortress walls and savor the undisputed star of regional cuisine: Cassoulet—a rich, slow-cooked casserole of duck confit, pork sausage, and creamy white beans, matched with a bold Corbières red.

May 24: Carcassonne REST DAY
Unbuckle your boots and step back into the Middle Ages! Spend a glorious rest day exploring the fairytale citadel of Carcassonne. Wander narrow cobbled alleyways, tour the imposing Château Comtal, or walk the high ramparts taking in sweeping views over the Aude valley. Spend a lazy afternoon under the shade of plane trees along the Canal du Midi. Tonight, indulge on a shaded patio with local goat cheeses, air-dried hams, and fresh fruit tarts, washing it all down with a glass of velvety Languedoc-Roussillon wine while the illuminated medieval castle glows around you.

May 25: Carcassonne – Monasterio de Boltaña, Spain
Fire up the engines—the Pyrenees are calling! Leaving the medieval charm of Carcassonne behind, we head southwest toward the mighty mountain frontier, carving through twisting backroads, deep valleys, and spectacular mountain passes as we cross into Spain. The ride builds toward one of the Pyrenees' most celebrated motorcycle routes: the legendary N-260, a road made for riders who live for flowing bends, technical corners, and endless mountain scenery. Follow the curves through the dramatic landscapes of the Aragonese Pyrenees, where rugged peaks, forested slopes, and traditional stone villages create a breathtaking backdrop at every turn. Our destination is the magnificent Monasterio de Boltaña, a beautifully restored former monastery overlooking the Ara River valley. Here, centuries of history meet refined mountain hospitality—the perfect place to unwind after a day in the saddle.

May 26: Monasterio de Boltaña – Andorra
Get ready for a true Pyrenean riding adventure! We leave the tranquil surroundings of Monasterio de Boltaña and continue along the legendary N-260, one of Spain's great mountain roads and a favourite among motorcyclists for its sweeping curves, flowing rhythm, and spectacular scenery. Every bend reveals another postcard-worthy view as we ride through the heart of the Spanish Pyrenees, passing rugged peaks, dramatic valleys, and picturesque mountain villages.
The route delivers the kind of riding that makes this region legendary: technical sections to challenge your precision, open corners to savour the flow, and ever-changing mountain landscapes that demand you stop, look, and take it all in. From Spain, we continue toward the mountain-ringed Principality of Andorra, where the roads climb into a world of high-altitude scenery and exhilarating riding. Expect a day packed with memorable corners, crisp mountain air, and the unmistakable satisfaction of linking one great Pyrenean road to the next.

May 27: Andorra – Barcelona – END
Our final riding day is a grand finale of pure riding joy! We drop down from the high Pyrenees on fast, flowing curves through the stunning Catalan countryside and Montserrat Natural Park, heading straight for the Mediterranean Sea. Marvel at the jagged rock needles and sanctuary of Montserrat before rolling into Catalonia's pulsing capital, Barcelona! Celebrate the triumph of completing this epic odyssey with an explosive Spanish feast: sample endless Catalan tapas, fresh seafood, and authentic paella, raising a glass of chilled Cava or fine Rioja red to toast the ride of a lifetime!

May 28: Departure Barcelona
Enjoy a final breakfast with your brotherhood of the road. As you prepare for your flight home, you leave Barcelona with unforgettable memories of thousands of epic curves, majestic landscapes, world-class culinary discoveries, and unbreakable friendships forged on the open road from Amsterdam to the Mediterranean.

May 29: Optional Extension in Barcelona
Planning to stay a little longer? Extend your journey and dive deeper into the vibrant energy of Catalonia's capital. Marvel at Antoni Gaudí's breathtaking masterpieces like the Sagrada Família and Park Güell, or lose yourself in the atmospheric cobblestone alleys of the Gothic Quarter and El Born. Savor world-class tapas and fresh seafood at local markets, take in dramatic panoramic views from Montjuïc, or simply unwind on the Mediterranean shores of Barceloneta Beach as you reflect on your epic road trip.
