Day 2: Barcelona – Andorra

Fire up those engines—our European adventure begins!

We leave Barcelona behind and head north through the spectacular Catalan countryside, gradually trading Mediterranean landscapes for the rugged foothills of the Pyrenees. The roads become increasingly engaging as we climb into the mountains, with sweeping bends, dramatic rock formations, and increasingly spectacular views.

Our route leads toward the mountain-ringed Principality of Andorra, where high-altitude scenery and winding mountain roads provide the perfect introduction to the days ahead. Depending on the chosen route and seasonal road conditions, we can incorporate some of the region's most rewarding Pyrenean passes.

In the evening, explore Andorra la Vella or head into the surrounding mountain villages. Settle into a traditional borda, a rustic stone mountain restaurant, and enjoy a hearty feast of charcoal-grilled meats, wild mushrooms, and local mountain specialties, accompanied by a robust Spanish red from Somontano.

Day 3: Andorra – Monasterio de Boltaña, Spain

Fire up the engines—the Pyrenees are calling! Leaving the mountain-ringed Principality of Andorra behind, we head into the spectacular Spanish Pyrenees for a day of pure motorcycling pleasure. Get ready for a thrilling combination of winding mountain roads, sweeping bends, and dramatic descents through rugged peaks, forested valleys, and charming stone-built villages.

Our route takes us toward one of Spain's most celebrated motorcycle roads: the legendary N-260. Known for its flowing curves, technical corners, and breathtaking mountain scenery, this iconic Pyrenean road delivers everything a passionate rider could wish for. Every section offers a new challenge, with magnificent panoramas unfolding as we carve our way through the heart of the mountains.
